PRIVATE WATERFRONT HOME

Long before Whistler became a world-renowned resort, a small group of pioneers recognized the extraordinary beauty of Green Lake and helped shape the community we know today.

Once home to Trudy, a member of Whistler's original ski school, this remarkable 1.29-acre waterfront estate carries forward the spirit of that pioneering era.

Whistler and Blackcomb, beyond Green Lake

Set within Trudy's Landing and offering more than 400 feet of lake frontage, the property enjoys exceptional privacy, all-day sunshine, and panoramic views stretching across Green Lake to Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains.

Expansive waterfront gardens

Designed for gathering, framed by the view

Generous living spaces open toward Green Lake, creating an easy connection between the interior, patio and lawn. Designed for everyday comfort and effortless entertaining, the home keeps the lake and mountains at the centre of daily life.

Kitchen views of Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains

Indoor swimming pool

Expansive lawns, a private dock and an unrivaled waterfront setting create a remarkable foundation for the property's next chapter.

A tranquil retreat overlooking Green Lake

If Whistler were a blank canvas today, this is where you would choose to build. Enjoy the home as it is, or reimagine the property as a generational estate worthy of this extraordinary setting.
